It's Happening All Around You.

We all do things to keep ourselves and others safe as part of our daily routine. Learning to ride safely in a car is a great place to start, but can you spot four other safety habits hidden inside the picture to the right?

Can you spot a driver wearing a seatbelt?

The driver is buckled up—every trip and ride. Why is it important to always buckle up?

Wearing a seat belt keeps you safe. It's one of the smartest decision drivers and passengers can make in a vehicle..

Can you spot a young girl safely crossing a street?

The girl is holding an adult's hand as she uses the crosswalk. What else should you do before crossing the road?

Always stop at the curb before crossing. Listen and look left, right, and left again. Keep looking while you're crossing, it's best to cross at a corner or crosswalk.

Can you spot a family walking somewhere safe?

The family is walking safely on a sidewalk. If there is no sidewalk, where should you walk instead?

On the left side of the street, facing the cars that are travelling towards you.

Can you spot a young boy safely riding his bike?

The boy is wearing a properly fitted bicycle helmet to keep him safe. Why is he also wearing bright-colored clothing?

It's important people can see him when he's on his bicycle, so he wears bright clothing to make him more noticeable.

Always pay attention to traffic signs and rules!
